Are the original fish fertilizers

Fertilizer ammoniated with Fish-Scrap is universally admitted to be the plant food best suited to the cotton crop.

This is not a theory, but a fact proven by the experience of many. The popularity of Royster's, the original and genuine fish-scrap fertilizer has caused a host of brands to appear with fish in the name: if you want to be sure of getting fish in the goods as well, be sure to buy the brand that made fish-scrap famous; F. S. R.

If you are not already acquainted with the splendid results from ROYSTER'S fish-scrap fertilizer, we simply ask that you test it alongside any other brand and abide by the proven results.

"Faust" To-Night.

Now comes the announcement that the diversified attractions already offered will be topped off by a real GRAND Opera performance presented tonight at the Opera House by the New York Grand Opera Company, who will offer that fantastic and picturesque opera "Faust," always esteemed as the best entertainment of its class ever conceived.

Gounod's immortal masterpiece was first produced in 1859, and ever since, as it will be for ages to come, "Faust" has been and will be enjoyed above all operatic specialties—musically, dramatically, and from the point of view of being within the understanding of all classes of music devotees, especially by those who revel in something more exalted than ragtime.

One cannot imagine a disappointment with such splendid artists to interpret "Faust" as Gounod, the great tenor, for whom Caruso expresses admiration and respect, Richard E. Parks, late of the Savage English Grand Opera Company and considered the best Mephisto in America, Marguerite Robert, formerly engaged with the Boston Grand Opera Company, Romeo Malpica, and Madam Josephine Rondero, also conspicuous with the same Boston organization, and last but not least the American mezzo, late with the American Grand Opera Company.

The Metropolitan symphony players are instrumentally associated with the New York Grand Opera Company, under the musical directorship of Karl W. Schulz.

Miss Hobert, formerly with Boston Grand Opera Company, possesses rare qualifications as a lyric soprano, and of whom it is justly predicted will occupy a position of unusual prominence in Grand Opera in the near future. She is not only a gifted singer and consummate actress, but is blessed with an abundance of good looks, and wherever she appears the charm and winsomeness of her manner completely captivates her audience; critics fairly rave over her Marguerite as being the embodiment of fascinating girlhood.

The Leola Board of Trade is not expecting to build Leola into a city of 25,000 people within a few years time, but is expecting by painstaking, careful and co-operation effort, to place the material advantages and opportunities of this part of the world before the county and thereby induce good citizens of other sections to come and cast in their lots with us from time to time.—Leola News.

We Have Faith in This Stomach Remedy

A woman customer said to us the other day, "Say, you ought to tell everyone in town about Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets. I would myself if I could." That set us to thinking. So many people have used them and have so enthusiastically sounded their praises both to us and their friends, that we have an idea you know all about them. But, in the chance that some of you who suffer from indigestion, heartburn, dyspepsia, or some other stomach complaint, don't know about them—we are writing this.

They contain Bismuth and Pepsin, two of the greatest digestive aids known to medical science. They soothe and comfort the stomach, promote the secretion of gastric juice, help to quickly digest the food and convert it into rich, red blood, and improve the action of the bowels. We believe them to be the best remedy made for indigestion and dyspepsia. We certainly wouldn't offer them to you entirely at our risk unless we felt sure they would do you a lot of good. If Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets do not relieve your indigestion, check the heartburn, and make it possible for you to eat what you like whenever you like, come back and get your money.

Sold only at the more than 7,000 Rexall Stores, and in this town only at our store. Three sizes, 25c, 50c, and $1.00. C. A. Milford & Co., Main Street, Abbeville, S. C.

The Terrible Case of Mike Mullikan.

Down about old Boston town, in the district of Back Bay, Mike Mullikan had his being, and also ran a dray. But the Fates one day got after Mike, they would not let him be, and so one fine morning he had the pleurisy. Then followed coughs, sore throats and colds, and finally gripe and boils, and sunburn inflammation then—they got him in their coils. Mike also got some bruises, corns, bunions, burns and sprains, he had rheumatic symptoms and lumbago gave him pains. Neuralgia, toothache, felons, crowded fast upon his ills, tonsillitis and pneumonia then knocked him off his sills. The doctor said bronchitis, too, would come most any day, and if looked like Mike might have a job of riding his own dray. But just as death began to dance and mourners all looked grim, a kindly good old neighbor said: "Try Gowan's stuff on him." And so they took beloved Mike and rubbed him hard all day, and Mike sings Gowan praises now, and Mike still drives his dray.
